Teatown Hudson River EagleFest, the annual festival celebrating the bald eagle's winter migration to the Hudson River, will soar once again on Feb. 8 (snow date Feb. 9).

The event takes place at Croton Point Park. This year's celebration features expanded programming, including presentations by the youngest falconer in Connecticut,

Christine Peyreigne, and award-winning filmmaker Jon Bowermaster. Long-time favorites of the event, including bird experts Bill Streeter, Brian Robinson and Brian Bradley, will make special presentations of their own. EagleFest is hosted by Teatown, a nonprofit environmental education center and nature preserve.

EagleFest 2020 will be held from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. Pre-sale tickets are $22/adults (12+), $13/children (6-11) and free for children 5 and under. Tickets sold at the venue on the day of the event are $25/adults, $15/children and free for children 5 and under. To purchase tickets, visit teatown.org/eaglefest.
